

PRODUCT AND CASH LOSS PREVENTION PROCEDURE

Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to protect Ted's Cameras and Digital Camera Warehouse (DCW), along with their employees, from theft, fraud, property damage, and other criminal activity. All employees must follow the systems, practices, and procedures outlined in this document to reduce risk.

Loss prevention is about safeguarding our people, our products, and our business.

Scope and Responsibility

This procedure applies to all employees and contractors of Ted's Cameras and Digital Camera Warehouse.

Definitions

- Manager: Supervisor, Team Leader, Manager, Subject Matter Expert, or any staff member supervising front-line employees.

Procedure Overview

Where a situation is not specifically covered by this procedure, employees must refer to the company Code of Conduct.

Employee safety always takes precedence over company property or assets.

1. Store Security

Store Keys

- Store keys are issued only to Store Managers, Relief Management, and designated team members.
- Keys must never be shared with general employees.
- The rostered key holder is responsible for opening and closing the store.
- Store and Site Managers must maintain a current key log.
- Lost store keys must be reported immediately to the National Sales & Operations Manager.

Cabinet Keys

- Cabinet keys must remain on-site at all times.
- Employees must return keys at the end of their shift or break.
- Lost keys must be reported to HR/Support Office immediately.
- Faulty locks must be reported as soon as they are identified.
- Cabinets must remain locked unless a product demonstration is in progress.

Alarm Codes

- Alarm codes are issued to Store Managers, Relief Managers, and designated team members only.
- Codes must not be shared and are deactivated when an employee leaves the business.
- Store and Site Managers must maintain an up-to-date alarm code register.
- Store management must ensure the alarm is activated at the end of each day.
- Failure to set the alarm requires the employee to return to the store immediately.
- Alarms must be active during all out-of-store hours.

Staffing Levels

- Common sense and personal safety must be prioritised.
- Stores should not operate with only one employee unless absolutely necessary.
- Notify the National Operations Manager before opening with a single employee.

2. Bag Checks

- All employees must present personal bags for inspection by store management at the end of their shift or when leaving with personal bags.
- Employees are encouraged to leave valuables and large amounts of cash at home.

3. Staff-Only Areas

- Sales representatives and contractors must be supervised at all times while in store and must not be left alone.
- Customers, ex-employees, and employees' friends or family members are not permitted in back-of-house areas.

4. Stock Control

Receiving Stock

- Confirm deliveries are addressed to your store.
- Count all boxes and compare with the invoice/delivery docket.
- Sign only for stock sighted and counted.
- Record discrepancies or visible damage immediately.
- Refuse delivery if the courier insists on short delivery without proof.

Unpacking Stock

- Check received stock against purchase orders.
- Note any discrepancies and sign the invoice/docket once complete.
- Put stock away promptly to reduce theft risk.

Sending Stock

- No stock may leave the store without correct paperwork.
- All outgoing stock must be recorded on the outward goods manifest, including internal transfers.
- Receiving stores must check transferred stock against documentation and complete the inwards goods manifest.
- Supplier returns must include appropriate paperwork.

Stock Used In Store

- Managers must write off items through the POS system.
- All stock must be accounted for through the POS.

5. Stealing / Shoplifting Prevention

General Behaviour

- Maintain visible presence throughout the store.
- Avoid remaining in a single location; circulate regularly.
- Monitor blind spots and ensure cabinet and storeroom doors remain closed.
- Acknowledge customers promptly.
- Ask for assistance if overwhelmed by groups of customers.
- Limit product demonstrations if suspicious behaviour is observed.

When to Act

- When suspicious of a customer or group.
- When noticing repeated visits in a short timeframe.
- When unsure whether payment has been made for an item.
- Safety always comes first.

What to Do

- Remain calm and professional; offer assistance.
- Stay with customers if safe to do so.
- If a customer attempts to leave with unpaid items, ask politely for proof of purchase.
- If they refuse, allow them to leave—do not pursue or intervene physically.
- Report incidents to Centre Management Security and/or Police.
- Complete an Incident Report Form.
- Notify your Manager, WHS Coordinator, and/or Human Resources for support.

6. Price Swapping

- Verify that price tickets match the item being purchased.
- If a price swap is suspected, involve the Manager.
- Ask the customer to pay the correct price; if they refuse, escalate to management.

7. Internal Theft

- Report suspected internal theft to the Store Manager, National Operations & Sales Manager, and/or Human Resources.
- Do not discuss suspicions with other employees.
- Internal theft is serious misconduct and may result in instant dismissal and referral to the police.

8. Point of Sale (POS) Security

- Proper POS procedures protect profitability and reduce risk.
- Refer to the Cash Handling Policy for detailed instructions.

9. Incident Management – Robbery or Hold-Up

- Remain calm and follow offender instructions.
- Activate the alarm or call for help only when safe.
- Observe and mentally note details of the offender(s).
- Secure the area after the incident and prevent entry.
- Contact appropriate managers, police, Centre Management, the WHS Coordinator, and arrange employee support.
- Document all details for investigation.
- Do not speak to media or post on social media.
 - Only the GM or Operations Manager may communicate with media.
- Employees must be offered counselling, debriefing, and follow-up support.
