

Recruitment & Selection Procedure

Version 1

	Ted's Camera Stores	Version: 1
Number 15	Recruitment & Selection Procedure	Issue Date: 21/05/201

RECRUITMENT & SELECTION PROCEDURE

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Recruitment and Selection Procedure is to provide the Recruiting / Hiring Manager and those involved in the recruitment process an understanding of what is required at each stage of the recruitment and selection process.

The intent is to:

- * ensure a fair approach to the recruitment, assessment and selection process, ensuring consistency with equal opportunity principles
- * is transparent, whilst balancing the need for confidentiality of all applicants
- * promote a timely and efficient process
- * ensure clear roles and responsibilities is integrated with workforce planning to ensure that Ted's CameraStores and Minimax have the right capabilities in the right place at the right time and at the right cost

2. Scope

This procedure applies to the recruitment and selection of all fixed term and continuing staff members.

3. Exclusions

This procedure does not apply to the recruitment and selection of casual staff.

4. Procedure

Steps & Actions

Procedure	Responsibility	Timeline
1. Identify workforce need Has an established position become vacant, or is there a demonstrated need for a new position? The Recruiting / Hiring Manager will decide on the details of the vacancy including: <table><tr><td></td><td>Analysing the future staffing needs, taking into account future growth and shrinkage</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>The necessity to recruit an external candidate rather than fill the vacancy internally</td></tr><tr><td>*</td><td>Discuss your recruitment requirements with Human Resources, considering: ◦ budget ◦ workforce establishment ◦ workforce plan ◦ position title ◦ work location ◦ qualification required ◦ any specific experience or computer packages required ◦ employment conditions, including hours ◦ commencement date </td></tr></table>	*	Analysing the future staffing needs, taking into account future growth and shrinkage	*	The necessity to recruit an external candidate rather than fill the vacancy internally	*	Discuss your recruitment requirements with Human Resources, considering: ◦ budget ◦ workforce establishment ◦ workforce plan ◦ position title ◦ work location ◦ qualification required ◦ any specific experience or computer packages required ◦ employment conditions, including hours ◦ commencement date	Recruiting / Hiring Manager / Human Resources/Delegated Authority (CEO and/or relevant Executive)
*	Analysing the future staffing needs, taking into account future growth and shrinkage
*	The necessity to recruit an external candidate rather than fill the vacancy internally
*	Discuss your recruitment requirements with Human Resources, considering: ◦ budget ◦ workforce establishment ◦ workforce plan ◦ position title ◦ work location ◦ qualification required ◦ any specific experience or computer packages required ◦ employment conditions, including hours ◦ commencement date

✱ Get approval from the delegated authority (usually CEO / or relevant Executive) to commence the recruitment process.
2. Review position description and classification All positions require a written position description. Human Resources can provide you with a template. The Recruiting / Hiring manager will need to: <table><tr><td> ✱ review the existing position description, (for an existing role) and update it, if the position or competency profile has changed. If a position description is altered or newly created it needs to be sent to Human Resources for evaluation and records management. </td><td rowspan="6"> Recruiting / Recruiting / Hiring Manager supported by Human Resources </td></tr><tr><td> ✱ clarify the type of position required; the proposed job classification and salary; and the required skills, knowledge and behaviours check the position title is in line with market (HR can assist with this) </td></tr><tr><td> ✱ check the position description is up to date, including position accountabilities, key selection criteria, qualifications, skills, knowledge and behaviours </td></tr><tr><td> ✱ consider other requirements such as health and safety, and mandatory checks (for example, Working with children or police checks) </td></tr><tr><td> ✱ decide on attraction, recruitment and selection methods, including any targeted search activities for equity groups or specialised and difficult to source skill sets </td></tr><tr><td> ✱ Decide on interview / selection panel members and the extent of their activities – for </td></tr></table>	✱ review the existing position description, (for an existing role) and update it, if the position or competency profile has changed. If a position description is altered or newly created it needs to be sent to Human Resources for evaluation and records management.	Recruiting / Recruiting / Hiring Manager supported by Human Resources	✱ clarify the type of position required; the proposed job classification and salary; and the required skills, knowledge and behaviours check the position title is in line with market (HR can assist with this)	✱ check the position description is up to date, including position accountabilities, key selection criteria, qualifications, skills, knowledge and behaviours	✱ consider other requirements such as health and safety, and mandatory checks (for example, Working with children or police checks)	✱ decide on attraction, recruitment and selection methods, including any targeted search activities for equity groups or specialised and difficult to source skill sets	✱ Decide on interview / selection panel members and the extent of their activities – for
✱ review the existing position description, (for an existing role) and update it, if the position or competency profile has changed. If a position description is altered or newly created it needs to be sent to Human Resources for evaluation and records management.	Recruiting / Recruiting / Hiring Manager supported by Human Resources
✱ clarify the type of position required; the proposed job classification and salary; and the required skills, knowledge and behaviours check the position title is in line with market (HR can assist with this)
✱ check the position description is up to date, including position accountabilities, key selection criteria, qualifications, skills, knowledge and behaviours
✱ consider other requirements such as health and safety, and mandatory checks (for example, Working with children or police checks)
✱ decide on attraction, recruitment and selection methods, including any targeted search activities for equity groups or specialised and difficult to source skill sets ✱ Decide on interview / selection panel members and the extent of their activities – for example, will they be involved in initial applicant screening?

*	Interview / selection panel should consist of mixed genders (where possible)
*	confirm the advertising avenues
The Recruiting / Hiring Manager together with Human Resources will benchmark the appropriate remuneration and benefits for the role. Remuneration recommendation is subject to approval from the Delegated Authority (CEO and /or relevant Executive).
3. Sourcing and advertising At a minimum, the position should be advertised internally though the weekly "Resourcing Update". The Recruiting / Hiring Manager should consider any suitable redeployees. Human Resources will advise the hiring manager if there are any staff in redeployment The position can also be advertised through: <table><tr><td></td><td>online websites</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>social media such as LinkedIn</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>specialised websites (professional forums and associations)</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>referrals /word of mouth</td></tr><tr><td>*</td><td>print media (newspapers, magazines, journals)</td></tr><tr><td></td><td></td></tr></table>		*	online websites	*	social media such as LinkedIn	*	specialised websites (professional forums and associations)	*	referrals /word of mouth	*	print media (newspapers, magazines, journals)			Human Resources with Recruiting / Hiring manager/ Delegated Authority (CEO and/or relevant Executive)
*	online websites
*	social media such as LinkedIn
*	specialised websites (professional forums and associations)
*	referrals /word of mouth
*	print media (newspapers, magazines, journals)

agencies (general or Search) – with approval from CEO
The Recruiting / Hiring Manager, in conjunction with Human Resources, will determine the most appropriate method of advertising. The costs associated with any advertising will be charged to the Recruiting / Hiring Manager’s cost centre. Human Resources will draft any advertisements for advertising for review by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager. Internal Advertising All position vacancies great than one (1) month in duration will be advertised internally through the “Resourcing Update” communications, and will be posted on any organisational pages such as LinkedIn for seven (7) days (inclusive of weekend).
4. Assess suitable redeployees Assess suitable redeployees, and proceed in line with the company redeployment process.	Human Resources with Recruiting / Hiring manager
5. Shortlist candidates Shortlisting is a way to narrow the field of candidates to those you would like to interview or assess. Shortlisting can be done by the: <table><tr><td> Human Resources </td><td></td></tr><tr><td> Recruiting / Hiring manager </td><td></td></tr><tr><td> interview / selection panel </td><td></td></tr><tr><td> any combination of the above </td><td></td></tr></table>	Human Resources		Recruiting / Hiring manager		interview / selection panel		any combination of the above		Human Resources / Recruiting / Hiring manager
Human Resources
Recruiting / Hiring manager interview / selection panel
any combination of the above

Internal applicants Where the internal applicant has a relative working at the same store, warehouse, location or department they may not be considered for the role. Where the internal applicant has received a warning / disciplinary action and has undergone performance counselling within three (3) months of their application they will not be eligible to be considered for the role they have applied for. Internal applicants who are not considered suitable for interview by their manager or the Recruiting / Hiring Manager will be provided with constructive feedback in a timely manner. The discussion would ordinarily include a review of the employee's development plan. External applicants Where the external applicant has a relative working at the same store, warehouse, location or department they may not be considered for the role. The short list needs to be approved by the hiring manager (prior to interviews). External applicants who are not considered suitable for interview will receive a decline from the Job Board once the recruitment process has been finalised.
6. Conduct interviews and assessments Telephone Screening Where there are a large number of potentially suitable candidates a short behavioural telephone interview can be implemented for external candidates to reduce the short list to preferred candidates. Candidates who are considered suitable after a telephone screen will be invited to an interview. Candidates who do not meet the requirements of the role will be advised of the outcome by telephone. Candidates will be given one of two reasons for not progressing with their application:	Interview / Selection Panel

✱	they did not meet the requirements of the role
✱	there we other candidates that better me the requirements of the role

Preparation for Interview

The person responsible for coordinating the recruitment process (usually Human Resources) will:

✱	confirm interview and date with candidate
✱	confirm with the candidate what they are required to bring to the interview and who they will be meeting
✱	arrange a quiet, confidential interview room with no interruptions
✱	Prepare and agree on the questions to be asked of all applicants through the interview process.
✱	ensure all panel members have a copy the candidate's resume and the interview guide
✱	Contact Human Resources for behavioural interview questions aligned to role
✱	ensure the room is prepared for the interview (clean) and with water (if required)
✱	inform reception of the candidate's name and expected arrival time

Interview

✱	Liaise with Human Resources to coordinate at least one formal panel interview. (This can include all panel members or be split over two interviews.)
---	--

It is recommended that all interviews have at least two (2) interviewers present, ideally comprising one (1) male and one (1) female interviewer.

✱	Decide if any additional assessment methodology should be used – for example, assessment centres, role plays, presentations, case studies, psychometric assessment.
✱	During the interview, probe the applicant by asking the pre-arranged questions linked to the selection criteria; also ask follow up questions to determine suitability.
✱	At the conclusion of each interview, the interviewers individually rate the applicant's responses then discuss the ratings using the scale in the interview guide.

Internal applicants

Short-listed internal candidates will be invited to a first round behavioural interview attended by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager and where possible Human Resources,

If successful, internal candidates may be invited to attend a second round interview by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager.

If unsuccessful, internal candidate will be advised personally and provided with constructive feedback. All paperwork will be filled on their personnel file.

Feedback will be provided to their Manager. A review of the employee's development plan should occur, reflective of any feedback from the interview.

External applicants

Short listed external applicants will be invited to attend a first round behavioural interview attended by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager and where possible Human Resources.

Where the applicant is in a remote location, or there are geographical restrictions this interview may be conducted over the telephone.

External candidates will be asked to provide a certified copy of transcripts of academic results, photo identification and original copies of proof of residency or the right to work in Australia.

Applicants will be asked to complete an Application Form and Consent to Check and Release National Police Record Form.

Candidates will be contacted by phone as soon as is practical after the interview and advised of the outcome.

Successful candidates may be invited to a further interview or made an offer of employment subject to successful employment reference checking and probity checks.

Unsuccessful candidates will be advised of the outcome by a member of the interview panel, (Human Resources or the Recruiting / Hiring Manager).

Second Interview

On occasions, it may be necessary to conduct second round interviews with the candidates in the following instances:

✱	when filling senior or Executive positions
✱	if there is more than one highly suitable applicant
✱	when the interview panel are experiencing difficulties reaching consensus

✱	when more in-depth information is required to satisfy the interview panel that the applicant is suitable for the role (e.g. past experience, technical skills)
✱	if the next level of management needs to be involved in the selection decision
✱	when Human Resources has conducted a preliminary interview without the Recruiting / Hiring Manager
Internal applicants Short-listed internal candidates will be invited to a first round behavioural interview attended by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager and where possible Human Resources, If successful, internal candidates may be invited to attend a second round interview by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager. If unsuccessful, internal candidate will be advised personally and provided with constructive feedback. All paperwork will be filled on their personnel file. Feedback will be provided to their Manager. A review of the employee's development plan should occur, reflective of any feedback from the interview. External applicants Short listed external applicants will be invited to attend a first round behavioural interview attended by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager and where possible Human Resources.
7. Select preferred candidate This will be the candidate who best meets the selection criteria. The decision should take into consideration: the interview, quality of the applicant's resume / application, presentation, employment reference checking, any		Interview / Selection Panel testing conducted and any other relevant information such as composition of existing team, equal employment opportunity and diversity.*

Diversity in the workplace means having employees from a wide range of backgrounds. This can include having employees of different ages, gender, ethnicity, physical ability, sexual orientation, religious belief, work experience, educational background, etc.

Each interview panel member is required to score the candidate's response to each behavioural question using the scale in the interview guide. The interview panel is to discuss as a group the rating and overall suitability of the candidate. The decision process relating to selection must be clear, documented, and defensible. Each applicant should be ranked in order of merit using the applicable scale.

8. Psychometric testing

If appropriate, psychometric testing can be included to inform the recruitment and selection process.

Psychometric testing can assist the Recruitment / Hiring Manager to assess an applicant's ability in specific skills (for example: verbal, numerical and diagrammatical reasoning) or to find out about the applicant's personal qualities by using personality questionnaires.

Internal applicants

Internal applicants may not need to complete any psychometric testing depending on their previous testing history and the nature of the role they are applying for.

External applicants

External applicants who have been successful may be required to complete psychometric tests appropriate for the role they have applied for.

Any testing will be organised by Human Resources. Results will be made available to the Recruiting / Hiring Manager.

Results will not determine the outcome of the recruitment process but will be considered in conjunction with all other information.

9. Organise required checks

Employment Reference Checking

Human Resources or the Recruiting / Hiring manager will undertake reference checking in line with the requirements of the role.

Please contact Human Resources for "Employment Reference Check Form Template".

The reference checking should always be conducted with the person's previous manager. Employment Reference Checks have the most valuable when conducted with someone who has managed the applicant.

Verification Checks

Human Resources will conduct the following verification checks where appropriate:

	Police checks
	Working with Children checks
	Sighting and verification of qualification

Hiring managers must notify HR of any additional requirements relevant to the candidates' profession.

Internal applicants

Will not be required to complete a Probity Check (such as listed above) where they have been previously checked.

External applicants

External candidates may need to complete a Consent to Check and Release National Police Record Form following an offer of employment.

This form along with a copy of photo identification will be submitted to Human Resources who will submit the form.

Human Resources/ Recruiting /
Hiring Manager

Note: Offers of employment are made subject to the successful completion of these checks.

10. Selection and appointment

Selection

Confirm candidate you wish to appoint.

Verbal Offer

A verbal offer may be legally binding therefor the following must be confirmed with the preferred applicant before formal offer and acceptance can occur:

*	Position title and duties
*	Contractual arrangements
*	Remuneration and benefits
*	Commencement date
*	The offer being conditional upon satisfactory probity check

Obtain approval from the delegated authority (CEO / or Executive) to generate offer of appointment.

Human Resources / Recruiting / Hiring manager will extend a verbal offer of appointment to the preferred applicant once the offer has been approved.

Internal applicant

The successful applicant will be made an offer of employment where possible face to face by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager. Their current manager will also be contact by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager and advised of the outcome.

A start date will be negotiated with the new appointee and remuneration and benefits confirmed.

External applicant

The successful applicant will be made an offer of employment by telephone by Human Resources or the

Human Resources/ Recruiting /
Hiring Manager

Recruiting / Hiring Manager. A start date will be negotiated with the new appointee and remuneration and benefits confirmed. Appointment A staffing announcement will be prepared by the Recruiting / Hiring Manager to his / her team. Human Resources will communicate the appointment through the "Resourcing Update" email. Based on ranking (per interview guide), if the most suitable applicant declines the position, then the next ranked suitable applicant may be offered the position (if appropriate). If there is no other suitable applicant the Recruiting / Hiring Manager may elect to re-advertise the position and re-commence the recruitment and selection process. Please note: No applicants should be declined before offer and acceptance has been confirmed with the preferred applicant. Human Resources will then confirm the offer in writing to the successful applicant with the relevant employment paperwork. The Recruiting / Hiring Manager should return all the interview notes to Human Resources for record keeping.
11. Contract offer and acceptance <table><tr><td></td><td>Prepare the letter of offer and employment paperwork (New Starter's Kit or as appropriate for existing staff)</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Send the letter of offer to the preferred candidate.</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Receive signed letter of offer from preferred candidate.</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Ensure all relevant checks have been successfully completed.</td></tr><tr><td>*</td><td>Ensure all relocation arrangements are agreed (where relevant) and processes are underway.</td></tr></table>	*	Prepare the letter of offer and employment paperwork (New Starter's Kit or as appropriate for existing staff)	*	Send the letter of offer to the preferred candidate.	*	Receive signed letter of offer from preferred candidate.	*	Ensure all relevant checks have been successfully completed.	*	Ensure all relocation arrangements are agreed (where relevant) and processes are underway.	Human Resources
*	Prepare the letter of offer and employment paperwork (New Starter's Kit or as appropriate for existing staff)
*	Send the letter of offer to the preferred candidate.
*	Receive signed letter of offer from preferred candidate.
*	Ensure all relevant checks have been successfully completed.
*	Ensure all relocation arrangements are agreed (where relevant) and processes are underway.

12. Contact unsuccessful applicants After the successful candidate has accepted the contract the Human Resources will advise all unsuccessful candidates via telephone (for those interviewed) and by email for other applicants.	Human Resources
13. Commence induction The hiring manager will be notified that the staff member has signed the contract and will be advised of the start date and induction and probation provisions. Prior to the Employee's First Day The Recruiting / Hiring Manager will need to arrange for the following prior to the employee's commencement date: <table><tr><td></td><td>Computer access</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Email address</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Suitable work station (if not based in a Store)</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Telephone set up</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Advise team of new team member</td></tr></table> Human Resources will arrange for the following prior to the employee's commencement date: <table><tr><td></td><td>Security access</td></tr><tr><td>*</td><td>Payroll log-ons (TMS, ADP and Employee Self Service (ESS))</td></tr><tr><td></td><td></td></tr></table>	*	Computer access	*	Email address	*	Suitable work station (if not based in a Store)	*	Telephone set up	*	Advise team of new team member	*	Security access	*	Payroll log-ons (TMS, ADP and Employee Self Service (ESS))			Human Resources & Recruiting / Hiring Manager	Before staff member's start date
*	Computer access
*	Email address
*	Suitable work station (if not based in a Store)
*	Telephone set up
*	Advise team of new team member
*	Security access
*	Payroll log-ons (TMS, ADP and Employee Self Service (ESS))

*	Biometric Time & Attendance Systems
*	Name badges (if appropriate)
*	Access card / pass (if appropriate)
*	Uniforms (thorough reception)
*	Advise reception of new employee and commencement date
On the Employee's First Day The Recruiting / Hiring Manager will need to ensure that the new starter is inducted:
*	Introduced to team in immediate work area
*	Introduced to other staff in office and / or Store
*	Provided with access card / pass (if appropriate)
*	Provide uniform
*	Provide name badge (if applicable)
*	Taken on a tour of work area including appropriate safety induction (fire exits, emergency evacuation plan, kitchen, bathrooms etc).
Human Resources will arrange for the following on the employee's commencement date:

* Signed Contract of Employment
* Evidence of right to work in Australia (if not provided at interview)
* Signed acknowledgement of Code of Conduct
* Completed personal and banking details form
* Completed tax declaration form
* Copies of qualifications and / or industry accreditations
* Photographic identification
* Any other documentation relevant to the position.
14. Commence probation period If staff member is new to the company, continue induction process in line with the induction and probation procedure. Recruitment Agency: Procedures If internal recruitment and selection processes have been unsuccessful in securing a suitable candidate, then it may be appropriate to engage a Recruitment Agency. Human Resources can provide recommendations on the best Agency use based on the type of role to be filled. Prior approval needs to be sought from relevant CEO before engaging a recruitment agency.	Recruiting / Hiring Manager	Before staff member's start date

Any charges will be confirmed with the Recruiting / Hiring Manager before engagement.

Once you have approval, Human Resources or the Recruiting / Hiring Manager provides the following information to the Recruitment Agency:

* *	There quirements of the position
* *	A position description
* *	The salary range of the vacant position
* *	Confirm the Recruitment Agency chargerates
* *	Any special requires such as psychometric testing

Recruitment Agencies are responsible for:

* *	Placing advertisements
* *	Receiving and screening applications
* *	Providing suitable resumes to Recruiting / Hiring Manager
* *	Short-listing and initial interviews
* *	Organising interview times for the recruiting / Hiring Manager
* *	Providing post interview feedback to applicants / candidates

✱	Psychometric testing (where appropriate)
✱	Employment Reference Checks
✱	Making verbal offers to preferred candidates
✱	Declining non-preferred candidates
With authorisation from Ted's Camera Stores or The Homewares Group the Recruitment Agency will approach the preferred applicant / candidate with a verbal offer of employment and will notify the Recruiting / Hiring Manager to confirm whether the offer has been accepted. If accepted, the Recruiting / Hiring Manager will forward the required documentation to Human Resources so that a Contract of Employment can be issued. The Recruiting / Hiring Manager and Human Resources will then complete steps 13 and 14 (as above) in preparation of the commencement date.
Secondments A secondment applies to employees who are temporarily transferred to another position or department for a fixed period of time. During this time their original position, or a role equivalent in status, level of responsibility and salary, needs to be held for them. Secondments are to last for a maximum of six (6) months. Human Resources will provide the employee with a secondment letter. At the end of the secondment the employee transfers back to their original or equivalent position and will receive the remuneration associated with their original role.		Human Resources & Recruiting / Hiring Manager
Fixed term contacts		Human Resources & Recruiting / Hiring Manager

Recruiting / Hiring Managers are responsible for monitoring fixed term contract and secondment expiry dates within their team. When a fixed term contract or secondment needs to be extended, the employment documentation needs to be issued at least fourteen (14) working days before the expiry date. In the event that fixed term contracts or secondments are extended on more than two (2) occasions the individual may be deemed to be a permanent employee according to relevant employment legislation. Human Resources may need to be contacted for guidance regarding this issue and how to avoid associated liabilities and responsibilities.
Changes to employment conditions Where there has been a change to an employee's remuneration / and / or employment conditions the manager needs to advise Human Resources. Human Resources will provide a letter to the employee confirming the changes. When changing an employee's terms and conditions of employment consideration need to be given to whether these changes substantially change the employment relationship. Four factors need to be considered: <table><tr><td></td><td>Remuneration</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Status (e.g. casual, permanent, fixed term)</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Position and duties required</td></tr><tr><td></td><td>Location</td></tr></table> Where the changes have been substantial or it changes the nature of the employment relationship Human	*	Remuneration	*	Status (e.g. casual, permanent, fixed term)	*	Position and duties required	*	Location	Manager and Human Resources
*	Remuneration
*	Status (e.g. casual, permanent, fixed term)
*	Position and duties required
*	Location

Resources will prepare and issue a new Contract of Employment.
--	--	--

5. Definitions

Human Resources Manager: is the manager responsible for setting Policy and Procedures for Recruitment and Selection for Ted's Camera Stores and The Homewares Group. The Human Resources Manager is primarily responsible for creating template document and position descriptions to support the recruitment and selection process. The Human Resources Manager will also provide consulting and coordination role in the recruitment and selection process.

Recruiting / Hiring Manager: is the manager who requires a new staff member for their team or area and will primarily be responsible for selecting the best candidate.

Induction: The introduction of the new staff member to their job, work section, work colleagues and the company as a whole.

Internal applicants: Includes all Ted's Camera Stores and The Homewares Group casual, fixed term and continuing staff members.

Applicant / Candidate: The person applying for the position.

Probation: A period of mutual testing during which decisions regarding continuation of employment are made.

Re-deployee: An employee who is part of the redeployment process because their employment will terminate due to redundancy.

Screening: Narrowing the field of applicants and identifying those that are considered appointable from their written application.

Recruitment agency: An employment or recruitment agency is a company that provides a service to both employers and job seekers. They place job seekers into specific jobs on a permanent or contract basis on a fee for service basis.

6. References

- * Fair Work Australia <https://fairwork.gov.au/>

- * Equal Opportunity Act 2010

7. Related documents

- * Acceptable Behaviours Induction

- * Employment Application Form
- * Position Description Template
- * Employment Reference Check Form

8. Version control

Version	Description of Changes	Date Issued	Author
1	Document created and approved	20 March 2018	SD
	Two year review	20 March 2020

Further assistance

Further information, advice or assistance please contact Human Resources on phone: (03) 8779 5504 or email: hr@teds.com.au

9. Attachment

